

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #1

Construct an acrostic for the word career by writing the names of six different careers horizontally, using a letter from the word career in each word.

c a r e e

r

© 2016 Career and Employment Prep

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #2

Fill in the blanks to write two career tool analogies (comparison of ideas). An example is provided.

Example:

A chef is to knives, as a carpenter is to hammers.

Analogy 1:

A(n) _____ is to _____,

as a(n) _____ is to _____.

Analogy 2:

A(n) _____ is to _____,

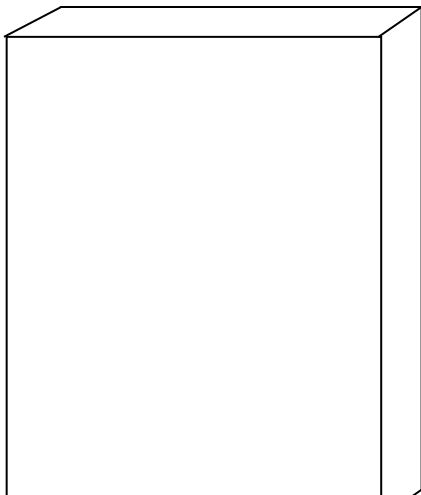

as a(n) _____ is to _____.

© 2016 Career and Employment Prep

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #3

Imagine you are the brand marketing manager for a breakfast cereal company. Design a cereal box that includes the cereal name and three adjectives the company wants people to associate with the cereal.

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #4

List six careers that start with the letter p.

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #5

Choose a career for yourself: _____

Design a business card that includes your name, position, company name, company logo, and an imaginary email and phone number.

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #6

Choose a type of career: _____

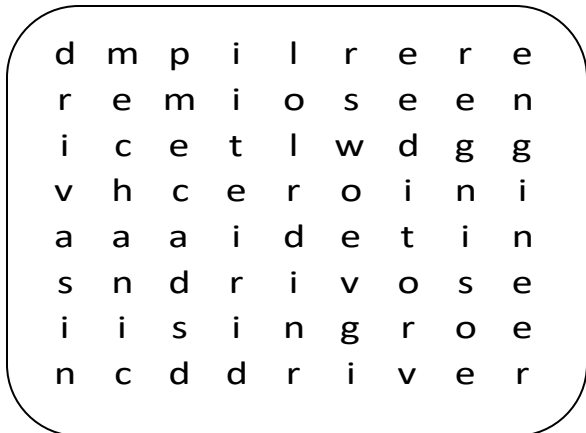

Draw three symbols, emoticons, or simple drawings that represent your chosen career. A person should be able to identify the career based on your drawings alone.

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #7

Find the following careers within the box. The words may be vertical, horizontal, diagonal, or backwards.

- actor ▪ aide ▪ driver ▪ editor
- engineer ▪ mechanic ▪ pilot ▪ singer

Name _____ Period _____

Career Exploration Warm-Up #8

List six careers that consist of seven letters.
