

Civics

Below are some general directions for completing this unit.

Part 1: Daily Journal

Keep a daily journal to document what is happening in the world in the area of politics, economics, and social issues / concerns. Be sure to explain why this information is important and provide some personal reflection on these items. You may do this in a variety of ways, including but not limited to handwriting, typing, blogging, video journal, podcast, etc. Remember there must be a way for me to assess what you have done. You will be able to turn work in when we return to school or via email to your teacher.

Ms. DeHainaut rdehaina@k12.wv.us

Mr. Mayne jmayne@k12.wv.us

Part 2: Content Reading

Copies of the readings have been uploaded to Google Classroom, or you have copies that were picked up / delivered by school. You will need to read and respond to the questions (both the questions in boxes to the side and those at the end of the reading). You may print the pages and respond or respond by writing / typing your responses. If you are writing / typing your responses, please include the title of the lesson.